journey homeward over the hills started yesterday morning at 8 o'clock from the little village of Interlaken, Mass, which nestles amid the Berkshires about midway between Stockbridge and Lenox. The travellers were a party of weeks as guests at St Helen's Home, which is, at least at this season of th year, the most important part of Inter-

From St. Helen's the journey for the girls led by stage up across the very crest of the Berkshires and then down to Richmond Furnace, a drive of seven miles, which for a good part of the distance skirts the upper billsides in such a manner that there is continually spread out before the traveller a wonderful landscape of wood and field, winding stream and placid lake. To the eyes of the wear ers of the rags and tags, and the velvet gown, too, accustomed as they were to little but the city's clutter of brick walls Princess Mary, it is expected, will be and pulley poles, the scene was a verita-

During the long reaches up the hills, when the straining stage horses made but slow speed, the girls took opportunity to op out and pick the wild flowers by the roadside, with the result that when they passed through the Grand Central Ter minal yesterday afternoon they gave the impression of a peripatetic flower show, which black-eyed susans and goldenrod had the call for popularity.

At Richmond Furnace the stages were forsaken for the railroad, and the journey est a good deal of its poetry. Mr. Astor has appointed Saturday morning of each week as the time when his employes may meet and confer with him and discuss matters pertaining to their work, and in this way he expects to adjust the management of the estate so as to avoid any hitch or loss. The men take kindly to the new orders of Mr. Astor, and it is said that he is rapidly winning his way to their liking.

GENERAL MONTEAGUDO. (Copyright by Victor H. Barrance.)

CUBAN GENERAL ILL HERE Monteagudo Closely Guarded in Hotel in Lake Placid.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Lake Placid, N. Y., July 24.-General Monteagudo, commander in chief of the Cuban army, carefully guarded, has been at the Grand View Hotel here for the last two weeks. He is recovering slowly from what was believed to be a serious illness.

When the Cuban military leader arrived here a fortnight ago his party consisted of his wife and two sons, secretary, aide-de-camp and several ervants. He took to bed at once, and the hotel physician was called to attend him. Ensconced in several large suites, the entourage escaped notice, and the physician was the only visitor to his apartment.

A week ago the general's own physiian arrived here from Havana and remained two days. The patient was able to leave his bed three days ago, and his condition has improved materially since then. The party will remain here several weeks more to give the general time to recover his health

BOROUGH HEADS AT QUEENS

McAneny and Cromwell Win Golf Honors at Oakland.

Members of the Board of Estimate and the official staffs of the other four boroughs made a tour of Queens yesterday Connolly of that borough. The start was made from Borough Hall, on Jackson avenue, Long Island City. After an inspec-tion of part of the borough the party stopped at the Oakland Golf Club house where luncheon was served.

In the party were President George Mc-Aneny of Manhattan, President George Cromwell of Richmond, President L. H. Pounds of prooklyn and their staffs, while F. W. Whittle, Commissioner of Public Works of The Bronx, represented President Cyrus C. Miller of that borough.

Following the luncheon a question arose as to the merits of the borough presidents in playing golf. President McAneny won the putting contest, while President Cromwell, who is left handed, won the drive. The officials commented on the fine conimprovements under way. For the first time since its adoption the new Queens Borough flag was hoisted from the flagpole on the Borough Hall in honor of th
